

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

RICCARDO GENGHINI

RICCARDO GENGHINI

Notary, Academic
Digital Innovator

www.riccardogenghini.eu

Riccardo Genghini, is one of the most authoritative and well-known notaries in Milan.

- He is a figurehead in the field of digital innovation in the legal and notary sector, and he is actively engaged at an international level in the protection of consumers and human rights (including privacy) in telematic and IT relations
- He is chairman of the E-Signature and Infrastructures (ESI) technical committee and of the European Telecommunications Standards Institute (ETSI.org) which draws up the technical rules for the implementation of Regulation 2014/910/ EU "eIDAS" on electronic fiduciary services
- He supports the European Commission in the internationalization of the «eIDAS» regulations and in the negotiation of the related international treaties
- He founded two successful startups in the field of legal IT services
- He was Adjunct Professor of Comparative Commercial Law at Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore in Milan (2005-2017)

PROFILE

TOPICS

Riccardo Genghini is actively committed in digital development in favor of a more human focused, free and sustainable society.

- Digital telematic act: technique and regulation
- Use of blockchains for the security of telematic contractual obligations
- Protection of privacy and of consumer rights in on-line transactions
- How technology impacts on the security of citizens' data
- Innovation and digital research in the notarial field
- How technology can help real estate in times of physical distancing